The Goal of DAE,

is to help marginalized individuals Discover Artistic Empowerment, enabling their voices to resonate, irrespective of their backgrounds or perspectives. As they find new ways of expressing themselves, we commit to amplifying and honoring these diverse narratives within our community, creating awareness of the immense value in our collective endeavor.

Our Mission:

Our MISSION is to promote and encourage differently abled artists in the entertainment industry by producing content featuring their talents.

We work with a variety of artists from many different backgrounds and marginalized groups to help raise awareness gain better representation for these groups while giving artists the tools and training needed in order to pursue their endeavors.

How will your donations be used?

Overhead operation costs of the organization like rent, programs we already have in place and new programs we would like to implement, such as, our youth theatre program.
