Broken Arrow Wranglers is a safe place for the lost and suffering where no one gets left behind. Preventing suicide, rebuilding communities, healing PTSD. We reach those that otherwise couldn't access what they need. We need help raising funds to keep doing the work we do and to sustainably grow!

Pay for people who need help for PTSD, depression, anxiety, addiction, and suicide to access a nationally certified trauma therapist (me) through holistic therapies - individual therapy, group therapy, healing intensives, and me to go into churches and other places to speak. Most churches do not know how to address mental health. I know how to teach them.

Funds can also be used to support our CEO's salary to keep spreading the word, building out the platform, securing long-term funding, and building programs in the community.

$7500 would immediately help 5 low-income women to access a healing intensive led by Kaleigh.
